

Joseph Shamp

Associate

jshamp@ccsb.com

P 214.855.3101

Joe Shamp is an attorney in Carrington Coleman's transactional department, having extensive hands-on experience in high-value and sophisticated transactions ranging from seven to eight figures. He is particularly adept at Corporate Transparency Act compliance, having counseled numerous clients, including those with complex corporate structures, on adherence and strategic measures. Joe drafts and negotiates transaction documents and contracts, advises clients on intricate transaction matters, and prepares corporate documents such as company agreements, shareholders' agreements, and limited partnership agreements. Clients enjoy working with Joe for his personable and collaborative approach. With a background as an entrepreneur, he brings a unique perspective to his practice, offering insight into the challenges and priorities of business leaders.

Areas of Focus

Industries

- Digital Assets
- Financial Services
- Professional Services
- Retail and Ecommerce

Services

- Corporate and Mergers & Acquisitions
- Private Equity and Investments
- Artificial Intelligence
- Banking and Finance

Education

- Tulane University School of Law, J.D., 2022, cum laude
- Tulane University, Freeman School of Business, M.B.A., 2022
- University of Louisiana at Lafayette, B.S.B.A. in Economics, 2018

Admissions

- Texas, 2022

Leadership

- Dallas Bar Association – Member

Speeches/Publications

- Taking Equity in Clients, Dallas Bar Association Headnotes (Co-author), February 2025

Outside of Work

Outside of work, Joe enjoys collecting lots of books and reading some of them, critiquing movies with friends, weightlifting, and hanging out with his dog Penny. Since living in Ukraine and Kazakhstan for several months in 2019, he has a passion for international travel and is always looking forward to his next trip.